College Credit Now

A jumpstart to your college experience

From engineer to EMT, nurse to auto technician, no matter the career you're interested in you'll likely need college training to reach your goal. By taking College Credit Now (CCN) classes while still in high school, you'll get a head start on college at a fraction of the cost.

Get ahead

The credits you receive from the CCN classes you take in high school are transferrable to most community colleges and four year universities.

Save money

While local colleges cost $80-200+ per credit, you can take any CCN classes available at your high school and earn college credit for $25 a year.

Find success

Gain experience and confidence in your transition from high school to college.
